

bakken museum

tips for a successful field trip

Thank you for choosing The Bakken Museum. Please review the following information prior to your visit. Additional information about The Bakken Museum and the Museum of Broadcasting can be found at www.TheBakken.org and www.MuseumofBroadcasting.org.

Payment Policy

- Review your confirmation letter for your total fee and registration information.
- Payment is required on or before the date of your workshop for the number of participants registered or the number of students actually attending, whichever is greater.
- You may change the number of registered participants in writing (mail, fax, e-mail) to The Bakken.
- Changes must be received a minimum of 20 business days (4 weeks) prior to the workshop date(s).
- Refunds will not be given if fewer participants attend than were registered.
- You may bring one chaperone for each 4 students at no charge. Additional chaperones may come for $7.00 each.
- Cancellations not made in writing at least 15 days in advance will be charged $50.00.
- Please fax cancellations to (612) 927-7265.
- If you have any questions email Patrick Tomko at tomko@thebakken.org.

Arrival

- Please read your confirmation letter to verify what time your group should arrive and depart.
- Try to arrive five minutes before your scheduled confirmation time. Please stay on your buses. A Bakken staff member will greet you at your buses when you arrive and direct you into the museum. Buses must park on 36th Street in front of the building.
- Be prepared to report your final student and chaperone numbers when you arrive.
- Coat storage space is limited, so have your students leave their coats at school or on the bus.

Lunch

- Please bring your own food and beverages as there are no food or drink concessions available.
- Lunches should be labeled and grouped together in boxes or grocery bags.
- School groups signed up for a Bakken/Pavek field trip will eat lunch at the Museum of Broadcasting.

Teachers

- Be prepared to split your groups in half for exhibit tours and into groups of 4 students for the workshop based experiments.
- Please have your students wear name tags and inform us right away if anyone has special needs.

Museum Store

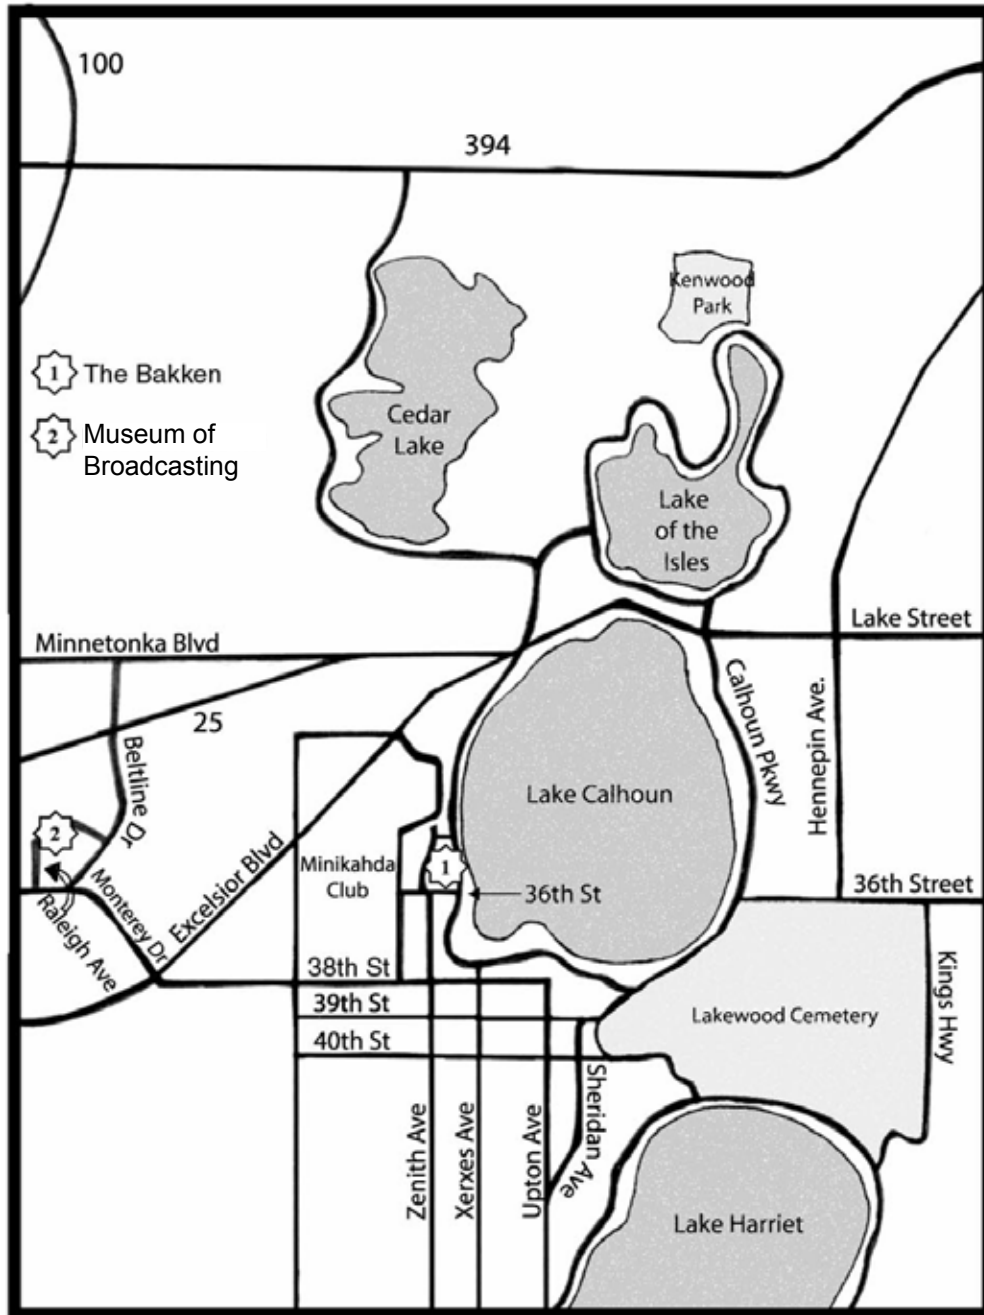

- The Museum Store is closed to field trips.
